

Reduce SAT to "Beating a level in Mario" (Proof it is NP-Hard)

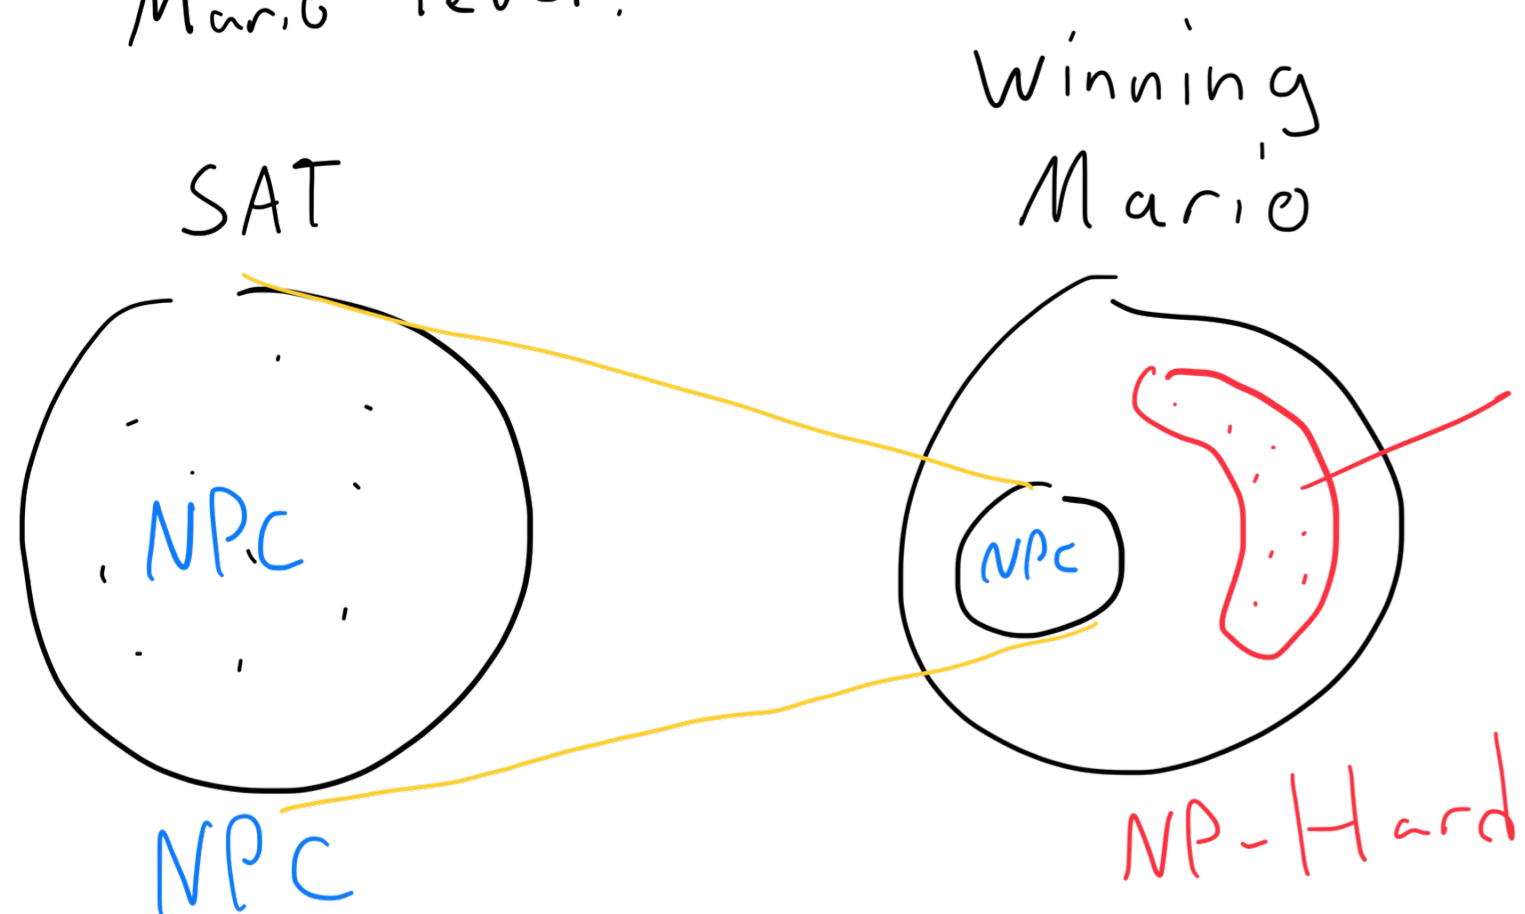

Given

$$\text{SAT } \psi = (x \vee -y) \wedge (x \vee y)$$

we construct the following level.

Any SAT expression has a logically equivalent Mario level!

There exist undecidable levels, so "Mario" is NOT in NP in general.